Commodores Comment

Hello and welcome to my last Commodores comment and the July edition of the Shoreline. Well it's been a busy year for the boat club and might I say a very successful one as well. I have enjoyed my time as Commodore and would like to thank the executive for their support and encouragement over the last twelve months. I also thank the members who attended one or all of the events throughout the year. With at least one club event every month of the year there was plenty of options for the members to wet their boating appetite. When you have put time and effort into planning an event and you get a good turnout from members its very rewarding knowing that it wasn't a waste of time, so thanks as well to those who organized events. The highlights for me were the marathon, the Roxburgh to Clyde trip, and the Christmas bbq.

The last event on the calendar is the AGM. Yes it's the one most people loath to attend in case they get roped into doing a job. All I can say is the reward I have gained this year as commodore have far outweighed the effort tenfold. Everyone is capable of having valued input so don't be afraid to stick your hand up and have your say. Hell if I can do it anyone can!! So I hope to see you there.

Finally I wish the new Commodore "all the Best" for the next boating season.

Dave McFadzien

GBC 888

Secretary Notes:

There was no formal Executive meeting this month. Instead, we went to the RSA for an Executive games night postponed from December when hardly anyone had time to attend. At this meeting we took the opportunity to update the Commodore and Executive photos for the Boat Club records. These have been missed over the last four years for various reasons. Its done now. A brief formal part was to ratify the new procedure for printing and collating the Shoreline. Due to the majority of the Printing Committee wanting to stand down, and no new members coming forward we had to make an "Executive" decision and go with a quote for Office Products Depot to do the lot. The new price is competitive.

The Executive wishes to thank Garry and Terry Inder, Fred Polson, Clarry Stevenson and especially Len and Shona Ross for their stint in compiling the Shoreline over the years. The magazine has been assembled at their home and all the advertising inserts stored there as well. The Rosses own a valuable appliance, a magazine flattener that looks for all the world like an old fashioned wringer washing machine from the 1960s.....in fact it is ! Look out for it on Trade me any day soon.

The Skipper's Dinner this year is our opportunity to celebrate the 60 years of the Boat Club. This is partly because members stay away from AGMs but mainly because the dinner is a more relaxed and social affair. There will be a few presentations as well but I can't say much here as I don't want to spill the beans.

The AGM is next month and traditionally is not well attended for some reason. This is a good club and that is because the Executive does a good job of managing the Boat Club affairs. Most of those on the Executive are busy people who know the requirements of the position and are happy to carry them out.

Secretary Notes:

There is always room for new blood so if you are interested in joining the Committee just mention to any on the Executive and we will arrange a nomination for you. Executive meetings are good fun and are important for the smooth running of the club events .

My good friend Wayne Butson in Dunedin has been boat less since Neptune pulled the rug out from under him off the Karitane coast a few months back. Wayne has been looking for a boat on Trade me and recently settled on an older Fi-glass Warrior. Due to its age the boat needs a few cosmetic repairs and a repaint, checking of the on-board fuel tank, and a refit of the shagpile and drapes inside the boat.

Originally fitted with a stern drive, the boat came with a nearnew 115 Merc 4 stroke which is mounted on a pod, and this gives heaps of room in the cockpit for fishing and Scottish country dancing if you are so inclined. Wayne can't wait to get the boat up to snuff so he can join the Boat Club on some of its outings.

I have been spending a little time at Lake Pryde making a small jetty and the conditions have been quite "yachttable". If you are interested in going on a list to be contacted when conditions are ok just text me and you are in. We need at least two adults from a safety angle when the yachts are operating. My cell is 0272089031

WHY IS A SHIP CALLED SHE ?

A ship is called a 'she' because there is always a great deal of bustle around her; there is usually a gang of men about, she has a waist and stays; it takes a lot of paint to keep her good looking; it is not the initial expense that breaks you, its the upkeep; she can be all decked out; it takes an experienced man to handle her correctly; and without a man at the helm, she is absolutely uncontrollable. She shows her topsides, hides her bottom and, when coming into port, always heads for the buoys.

SAMOA

Once again we have been to Samoa for a holiday. We had a rather unusual start this year as we had to go via Fiji. Probably we will not do this again, but we had to do it to get a package deal to a hotel that we wanted to stay at.

It was one that we have stayed at several times before but four years ago. It got badly damaged by a cyclone and they have spent the last few years refurbishing it. Anyway we did get there after about 24 hours from leaving home, which is about 13 hours longer than normal. The deal was worth waiting for and we enjoyed the time spent there. It is now a Samoa Sheraton but they still employ mostly local people including some of the ones that were from the original group. So we soon got into the swing of it again and they kept us on our toes.

We spent 5 days on the main Island doing the rounds of the great snorkeling spots. Our very first place we went to was one of the first we ever went and we had just a perfect day with no wind or current so cloudy water. There were huge shoals of fish going by us and we never saw the end of them. It was just magic. Next we went to visit the giant clam rehabilitation program me that has been going on for about 5/6 years now. They are certainly getting a lot larger with some of them up to 60cm wide. The color's are getting brighter every year now and some beautiful greens are appearing.

While we were in the water there we saw 6 wild Turtles swimming around amongst the clams so that was a huge bonus for us.

After 5 days we then took the ferry the bigger Island of Saaiai where the snorkeling beaches are more numerous and easier to access. Water was still warm with lots of fish and coral with another 3 Turtles spotted during our adventures. A bit of a worry this time as some of the coral was starting to die of and no one seemed to know what was causing it.

The tropical fruit is still absolutely wonderful but very expensive. After having a lot of fruit with breakfast and Papaya and Bananas for lunch and then Pineapple nibbles it was a very quiet day next day with no violent moves.

We found two more places to stay at next time we go and one night at one of them in the Fale {grass hut} where the tide came halfway underneath the hut and it was only four steps to the swimming water [great for early morning swims]. Had a great snorkel there although this place had quite rip through it so Bev got out reasonably quickly and I stayed with it getting out about 700m from where we had started, there was no real danger to it but it was along walk [or swim] with all the gear in the heat so another dip was required when I got back.

All too soon we had to leave and there were no problems on the return flights except that airlines are now enforcing cabin bag weights and restrictions which now includes Duty Free Bottles so we quickly donned a coat each with big pockets and just scraped in with my bag being 300gr. over but they said "Just Go"
Great memories.

Due to the poor weather that we have had at late the Waihola Marathon unfortunately had no choice to be cancelled
